Code of Conduct for Young People & Parents (Colts Cricket)

Ashburton Cricket Club (ACC) is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members.

ACC believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents, carers or guardians associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with ACC.

As a member of ACC you are expected to abide by the following junior code of conduct:

- All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- Members must wear suitable kit – for training and match sessions, as agreed with the coach/team manager. (Including, but not limited to; appropriate footwear (trainers), shorts or tracksuit bottoms, tops and sweaters, caps, approved helmets and standard cricket protective gear.
- Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.
- Junior members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club.
- All members will ensure they play within the 'spirit of cricket' and not bring the club's name into disrepute.
